ANALYSIS ON EMPLOYEE DATA

Headcount vs Year for male and female employees

| Year	Female	Male
2014	244776	137609
2015	241981	132806
2016	242753	132654
2017	246129	133668
2018	246049	133411
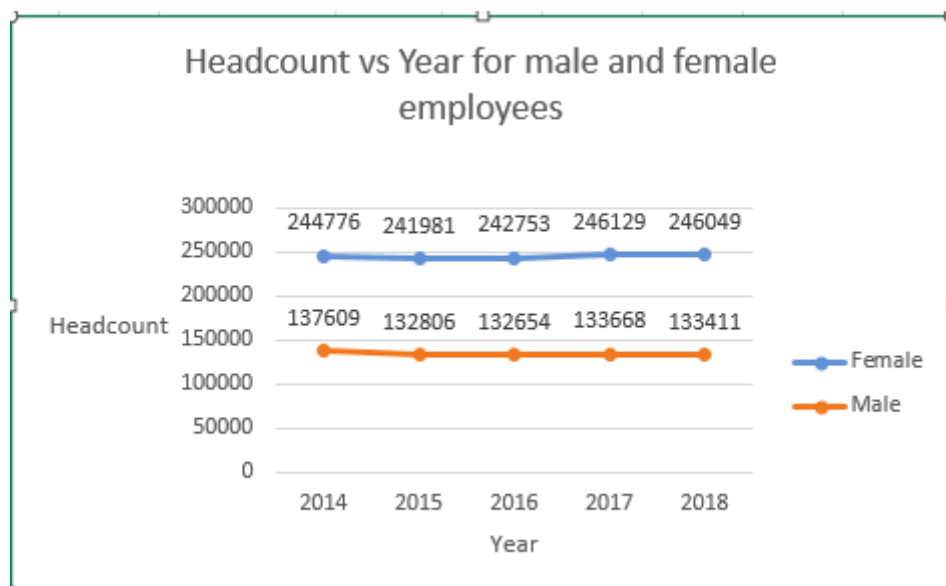

Sum of Headcount	Column Labels
Row Labels	Female	Male	Grand Total
2014	244776	137609	382385
2015	241981	132806	374787
2016	242753	132654	375407
2017	246129	133668	379797
2018	246049	133411	379460
Grand Total	1221688	670148	1891836

Note: Female employees have always been hired more than male employees throughout 2014-2018

The current representation of part time employees in the sector and in each Cluster

Cluster	Total
Treasury	148
Transport	4343
Premier & Cabinet	363
Planning & Environment	1553
Justice	5021
Industry	813
Health	48500
Finance, Services & Innovation	2058
Family & Community Services	1512
Education	47939

■ Total
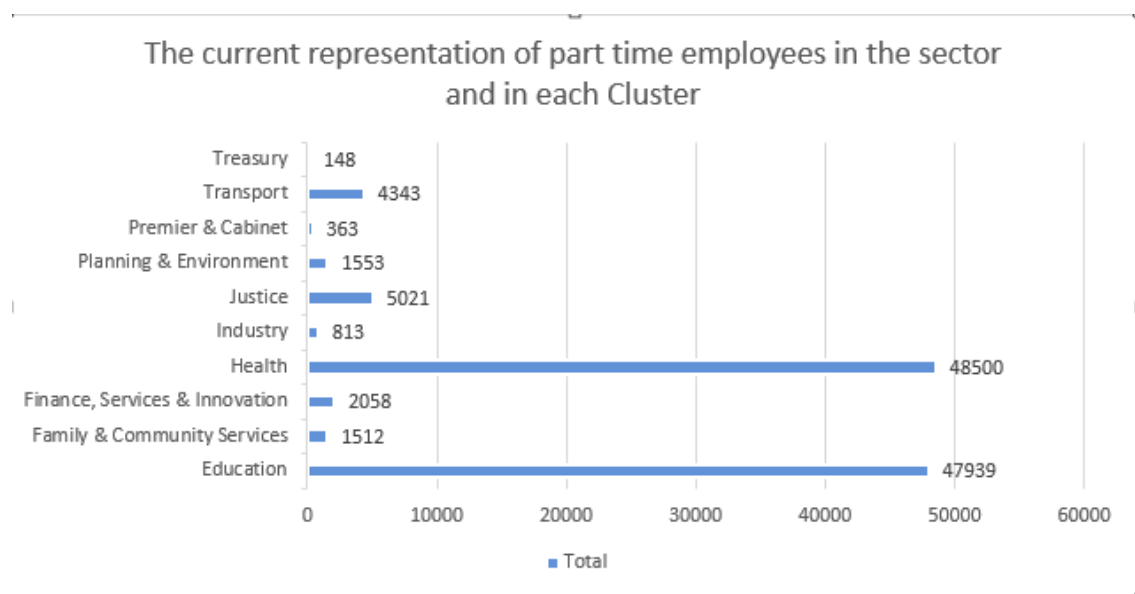

Health & education have the most part-time employees whereas treasury has the least.

Female

Cluster	Value
Education	39156
Family & Community Services	1399
Finance, Services & Innovation	1368
Health	41002
Industry	699
Justice	3574
Planning & Environment	292
Premier & Cabinet	1251
Transport	1345
Treasury	130

Male

Legend:
- Education
- Family & Community Services
- Finance, Services & Innovation
- Health
- Industry
- Justice
- Planning & Environment
- Premier & Cabinet
- Transport
- Treasury

Pie values: 18, 71, 302, 2998, 1447, 114, 8783, 7498, 113, 690

Change in part time male employees over last 4 years in different clusters

Legend: 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018

Change in part time female employees over last 4 years in different clusters

Legend: 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018
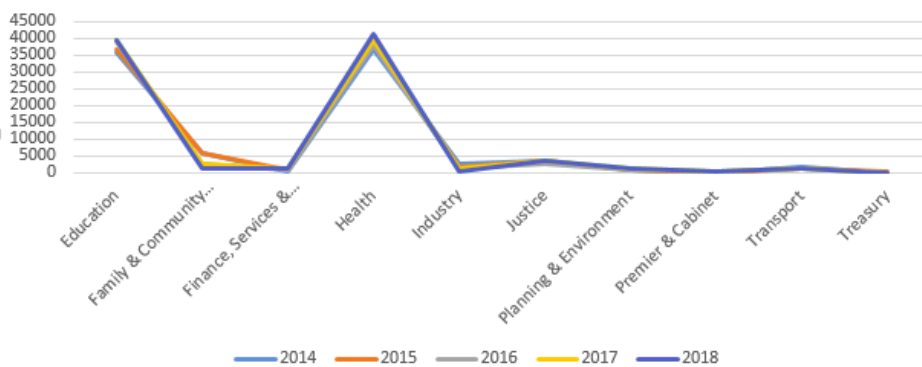

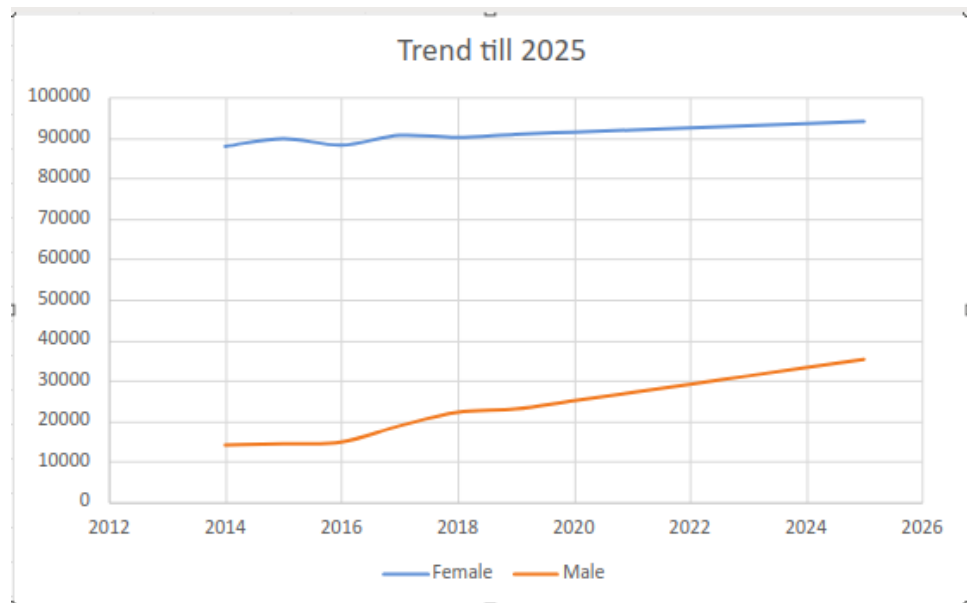

Trend till 2025

Trends show that male employability in part-time sector Is increasing more than female till 2025.